MANUFACTURING LEADERS FORUM ON DISASTER RECOVERY
SCHEDULED THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20th 2008

BUFFALO, NEW YORK — Leaders of local manufacturing companies are invited to attend the second in a series of panel discussions at a forum scheduled to take place on Thursday, November 20th from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. at the Larkin Building, 726 Exchange Street in downtown Buffalo. The forum entitled “Critical Business Information Retention & Disaster Recovery-Is Your Plan Up to Date?”, is being presented through the collaborative efforts of CoreIP Systems, Lumsden & McCormick, LLP, Jaekle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP, Insyte Consulting and the World Trade Center Buffalo Niagara. The November 20th breakfast forum is designed to bring together leaders of manufacturing companies for a dialogue regarding critical business information and disaster recovery. Using a panel format, local manufacturing executives with representative disaster recovery case studies and plans will describe their experience and challenges. Accounting, legal, technology consulting and international trade professionals will also be on hand to answer questions regarding relevant issues. The forum is complimentary. To register visit www.coreipsystems.com. For more information contact Paul Herlan at pherlan@lumsdencpa.com or 716.856.3300.
